Congratulations to my friend and bikini football player Yulia Hancheroff for dancing and acting in the opening act for the "Moisture Festival." The comedy and variety show runs from March 11-April 4th at Seattle's ACT, a contemporary theatre in downtown Seattle. Yulia is a professional gymnast from Moscow.

Hi friends:

That's a picture of me as a contestant on FOX REALITY channel's most watched program in history, Solitary 3.0. It's not my most flattering picture. I was automatically typecast as the "crier." And, I had reason to be sad because I was the fifth contestant to leave the show.

But, as you can see, I'm all smiles now as the show opened doors for me. Thanks to Solitary, I am now a contributor for the #1 reality show website, RealityWanted.com, which receives more than 1.8 million page views per month and I'm a segment host on CBS's "RobertGalinsky's Reality Wanted," the #1 online streaming radio group in the world with 98 million impressions annually.

So, how did I turn a "rejection" from being kicked off the show early to being "rewarded" with other projects? It has to do with PERSEVERANCE. It's inevitable there are things in life that won't go my way. In this case, my body quit before my mind was ready to say good-bye to VAL. In other words, I threw up in the food eating challenge where I had to guzzle down milk for every time I ate the least amount of food during each round. Rather than cry over spilled milk, I kept moving forward.

And, I'm not alone when it comes to folks who have PERSEVERANCE. Two months ago, I featured some close friends in January's issue of Mo's "Dare to Dream." It's been sixty days since some of them packed their bags and moved to LA, for one, he started recording in the studio again, and another, struck a pose. Showbiz is an industry that's all about "rejections," but from these updates, their PERSEVERANCE is "rewarding" them quite nicely.

J-C Flow has created a soundtrack with Adam Lambert from American Idol titled "Taste it All." You'll find Jenny Lin as an extra on Grey's Anatomy, Numbers, and NCIS. Seagal Emily Calhoun is teaching dance at the Rose City Ballroom with Christian Perry from ABC's Dancing with the Stars. She is also doing stage shows under the DWTS name. Jefferson Mendoza has a photo shoot in Hong Kong

I've learned if you keep PERSEVERing you never know when the next opportunity may

MO's CORNER:

From time to time, I receive feedback from people that resonate with me on WHY I do Mo's newsletter. Last month's newsletter on Forgive & Love sparked comments from readers:

Great story about LOVE! I always used to tell my staff, that is does not matter WHO shot Johnny, let's just stop the bleeding!
-- Wyomia Clifton, Kirkland

Cute little story. I have a hard time forgiving people and forgetting about the past, but I am still learning and trying to get better! I liked your message!
-- Kacee Means, Seattle

come knocking on your door. Gosh, even Mo's newsletter has helped a reader land a business deal. Read on:

"It certainly pays to stay connected and networked with others, you just never know where your next opportunity will come from. We have a new piece of business now that started with an update from Mo's newsletter. Keep your eyes open!"

-- Matt Heinz, Founder of Heinz Marketing

CHILD UNITED:

It pays to be single. Three Step Dating & Matchmaking raised $700 towards Child United's projects at last month's charity events.

J & D's -- everything should taste like bacon -- donated a gift package to Child United that will be given away at its silent auction and benefit concert on March 28th, "Voices for Change, a Muzik for the Soul." Details at www.childunited.org.

Until next time ...
PERSEVERE!
